

Pinch-able cheeks, a wry wink and a hearty laugh are classic Roxanne “Rox” Bartel. For 25 years these qualities allowed her to playfully “stir things up” in every role from Trainer to CEO.

Today Rox is “stirring it up” with her own business, ImpactBank, where she offers business coaching and performance consulting. She is jazzed by helping women who are ready to kick-some-ass in their work & world! Ask her about her new podcast “Kickass Koach” and the women-centric MasterMind Program she is piloting in Fall 2015.

Grace, wisdom beyond her years, and the personality to wear her signature red shoes – she's got it all! Oh, and she is a huge Canadiens fan; ok, so clearly she's not perfect!
